Security threats are becoming increasingly common, and ensuring that your students and staff are secure is essential. K–12 districts are working hard to reduce cybersecurity attacks by utilizing multi-factor authentication as a critical tool to help fight cybercrime and protect school networks. As schools work to take action against cybercriminals, they are also working towards finding new resources to fund third-party risk management.

Learn More About How Schools Utilize Multi-Factor Authentication

See How K–12 Districts Use Different Resources to Fund Security

Shop the Latest Technology

To learn more about the offerings available on the AEPA contract, call your CDW-G account manager.

CDW-G and the Colorado BOCES Association Contract 022-G