Outdoor Waste & Recycling Renegade and Uptown

- The Uptown Series is the perfect high-capacity, centralized outdoor recycling & waste station. The Uptown performs very well in low & high temperatures and has excellent chemical resistance. The scratch-resistant LDPE body, with stone-like finish masks the appearance of wear and tear overtime and the lower stiffness rating reduces potential for stress-cracking.
- The durable construction of the Renegade Series means it will not dent or rust and can outlast harsh weather conditions. With its unique canopy lid design, precipitation will run off the lids curved contours without contaminating the contents within. The

Renegade series is made from 100% post-consumer recycled content.
