We love supporting librarians at every stage of their journey, especially first-year leaders making a difference in their schools. Thank you, Erma-Lee, for your kind words and for trusting Mackin to be part of your library story! 🌈

I have loved working with Mackin as a first-year librarian. It was recommended to me by a colleague and I will forever be a Mackin fan. Not only is the website easy to use, but the customer service has been out of this world! I have had all my questions met with patience, understanding, and insight! I would highly recommend this vendor to everyone. I wanted to specifically shout out Danaca, who has been so patient and helpful!
